Florida Sales and Use Tax Important Facts to Remember

DR-11N
R. 07/01

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

1. Your sales and use tax certificate number has an INACTIVE filing status.
2. You will not receive Sales and Use Tax Returns (form DR-15), unless the filing status changes to an active status.
3. You will not receive an Annual Resale Certificate (form DR-13) since this certificate number has an inactive filing status.
4. This Certificate of Registration does not entitle you to purchase or rent property or services tax-exempt for resale.
5. You may not extend this certificate number to your suppliers.
6. Each location at which you do business must have a separate Certificate of Registration.
7. It is your responsibility to notify the Department if you have any changes in your business (new location, mailing address, incorporation, change of partner in partnership, etc.)
8. Always refer to your Certificate Number when communicating with the Department.
9. Before making any sales from, or purchases for, the above location, you must contact the Department and request that the filing status be changed to ACTIVE, unless you have prior approval from the Department.

Please contact the Department of Revenue Service Center nearest you, or call 1-800-352-3671 if you require additional information or assistance regarding Florida Sales and Use Tax.
